The Tattler

Volume 38

Bloomfield High School

Bloomfield, Connecticut

FOREWORD

A yearbook such as ours, the Tattler, is primarily a record of our four years at Bloomfield High School, but it also has a more enduring purpose. Years from now as we turn its mellowed pages, the pictures and articles will recall fond and happy memories of the years we spent gaining knowledge, experience, friends and fun.

Wandering through the pages of this Tattler is a character who will try to lead you through our high school days. His name is Rollie Newsprint, and even though his activities don't always turn out well, his intentions are of the best.

In this, the 38th edition of the Tattler, we have recorded this period in our lives when we have combined a carefree existence with the complicated process of becoming responsible men and women.

SENIOR OFFICERS

FROM THE FILES

As the first freshman class to complete four years in the brand new high school, we, the class of 1959, were very eager and ambitious to set a good record.

At our first class meeting we elected our class officers. Fred Keating was chosen president; Calvin Tracy, vice-president; Linda Palmer, secretary; Nancy Willoughby, treasurer. Sue Tavener and Brian O'Connor were elected as class representatives. Serving as our class advisors were Mrs. Beauregard and Mr. Pearlmutter.

On May 4 at our first dance, the Pink Paradise Promise, Nancy Kulpa was chosen Angel of the dance.

By June, we had proved that we were ready to advance to higher classes and take on the responsibility of bigger and better things.

First on the agenda in our Sophomore year was the election of officers. Fred Keating, our freshman president called the first class meeting to order on September 22, 1956. Fred was re-elected president; Art Charbonneau, vice-president; Nancy Willoughby, secretary; and Calvin Tracy, treasurer. The four members of our class chosen to represent us in the Student Council were Brian O'Connor, Danny Toce, Bimmie Barber and Francine Pellitier. At our second meeting Charlie Regini was elected to replace Danny Toce on the Student Council. Mr. Yaconiello and Mrs. Beauregard were our advisors.

Since we had such a large class, it was decided to have class dues collected by homeroom treasurers who were Calvin Tracy, Bimmie Barber, Evelyn Butvilas, Caroline Gamble, and Frank Gay.

Our class dance, Sophomore Hop, was held March 8, 1957. Near the end of the year we were measured for our class rings and settled back to wait till we were Juniors so we could claim them.

Our Junior year was bound to be big and important with class rings, Junior Prom and Nutmeg Boys State and Laurel Girls State.

We had two new class officers: Joan Eckhart, vice-president; and Charlie Regini, treasurer. Fred Keating remained at the head of our class as president and Nancy Willoughby continued to serve as secretary. With the help of our able advisors Mr. Yaconiello and Mrs. Beauregard, our activities were sure to be a success.

Before we knew it, October had arrived and brought our class rings with it. Everyone was glad because it was a sign that we were nearly Seniors.

Our Junior Prom, the year's biggest event, was held May 24. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars" and Joe Attenello and Joan Eckhart were chosen as co-chairmen. To raise money for the dance we had a coat checking service at the B.E.A. Faculty Game.

The gym was beautifully decorated in blue and white. Those who served on the decorating committee will never forget cutting and painting all those stars.

The center of attraction was a spiral staircase where Joe Attenello and Linda Palmer were crowned king and queen. Their attendants were Nancy Kulpa, Fred Keating, Nancy Willoughby, Charlie Regini, Susan Tavener, Frank Gay, Betsy Lee, and Tom Olcott. Wonderful music for dancing was provided by Earl Mitchell.

Near the end of March, Hazel Norris, Nancy Willoughby, Carolyn Hattie and Fred Keating were installed as members of the National Honor Society.

In the late spring, Nancy Willoughby and Betsy Lee were chosen to represent us at Laurel Girls State. Joe Attenello and Art Charbonneau were chosen to go to Nutmeg Boys State. Fred Keating became president of the State Student Council for the year 1958-1959. In late June he attended the National Convention of Student Councils in Missouri.

At last we were the big shots. Seniors—complete with privileges and raring to make this, our last year, the best ever. Fred Keating served as president for the 4th consecutive year. He was assisted by Art Charbonneau, vice-president; Nancy Willoughby, secretary; Tom Olcott, treasurer. Student Council representatives were Betsy Lee, Jane Corrette, Linda Palmer, and Joe Attenello. Mr. Yaconiello and Mrs. Bashour were our class advisors.

The "Tattler" staff began its work right at the beginning to insure its being the best yet. To show our appreciation for the fine work he has done while serving as our class advisor, it was decided to dedicate the yearbook to Mr. Yaconiello.

In November it was announced that Dolly O'Connor had won the Good Citizenship Award of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

With double sessions in effect for the first half of the year, we had even less time for our Senior activities. Soon after we got used to the shorter day, we had to begin thinking about Club Serenade, held December 20. The Christmas theme was carried out in the red, green and white decorations, the Christmas tree in the center of the floor, and Santa's sleigh and reindeer. Dance music was provided by Richard Linson. The high moment of the evening was when Nancy Willoughby was chosen as Miss Serenade of 1958. Linda Grant and Joyce Combs were selected as her attendants.

In keeping with our class's reputation for doing things differently, we held a talent night instead of a class play. The "talent" was composed mostly of seniors, but a few gifted underclassmen were allowed to take part.

June brought us memories that only seniors can possess — the banquet, class outing, Baccalaureate, and, the biggest event of all, Graduation.

Looking back on our four years at Bloomfield, we can only agree that it was one of the most happy and carefree periods of our lives.

CLASS WILL

JOE ATTENELLO leaves, but we're sorry to say he's taking his briefcase with him.

LEE BERGAMINI leaves on the grounds of his pocketbook constitution — to Miss Hubbard's joy.

CALVIN TRACY leaves his homework to all the teachers to be used for exhibition of neatness.

LINDA GRANT leaves her long brown hair — to no one!

CAROLYN KNOX leaves the Tattler to the next genius in line.

TOM OLCOTT leaves, trying to grow money on trees.

DICK TONAN leaves in his cool "jag" — as quietly as he can!

ANN CAMPBELL leaves still flirting with the junior boys.

RICHARD LIEBLER bequeathes his ability to draw in class — how does he ever get away with it?

FRANK GAY leaves his drag with the weaker sex.

GERRY GREENBERG leaves on his way to the office.

JERRY SCHREYER bequeathes his enjoyable sense of humor to the teachers to remember him by.

DOLLY O'CONNOR bequeathes her membership in the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America Inc. with much regret.

CHICKIE MAYETTE leaves class meetings mad as usual.

ELAINE ELLSWORTH leaves the FHA, after four years.

JUDY KEARNS leaves Mr. Ballard and her long frequent walks in the corridors.

MORGAN UTZIG leaves in a cloud of dust.

STEVE LIEBMAN leaves his hot, if not overcharged, line to the Hartford Electric Light Company.

JUDY MANION leaves with her boy problems.

JULIE SCRUSE leaves his musical beat to anyone who can do as well.

BECKY PORTER bequeathes her sweet, quiet ways to all the talkative juniors.

CHARLIE REGINI leaves his ability to talk about cars to anyone who's girl-friend can stand it.

LORRAINE HYER leaves, still arguing about the class colors.

DOT KEENEY leaves her book of late and dismissal passes to all tardy juniors.

JoANN MORIARTY leaves powdering her nose.

BETSY LEE leaves to go home and answer all her fan mail.

NANCY KULPA leaves, still trying to do a perfect cartwheel.

LINDA BOYES leaves her big brown eyes to any poor Juliet who's minus a Romeo.

JANE CORRETTE leaves and you don't have to ask who is happier when she leaves her French to the Frenchmen.

EVELYN BUTVILAS bequeathes her technique to bluff her way through home-work assignments to anyone who needs the privilege.

ART CHARBONNEAU leaves, still trying to control the Hi - Y meetings.

DONNA NIELSEN bequeathes her freckles to anyone who wants them.

CHARLIE PEASE leaves his ability to sleep in class to anyone who can get away with it.

HAZEL NORRIS leaves three inches of her height to anyone who can use them.

GAIL CLEAVES leaves her book on "How to Be a Class Clown" to the librarian.

SUE SCHWARTZ leaves memories of "Ginny" to Mr. Nevers.

CARTER CASIDA leaves his job at Grand Union to anyone who can load packages.

HAROLD DOUGLAS leaves his ability to play basketball to next year's team.
CAROLYN HATTIE leaves her Honor Society pin to a junior being inducted.
FRAN DELUCCO bequeathes her long, brown, wavy hair to all those who have naturally straight hair.
SUE TAVENER quits looking for the mailman—she's leaving straight for Ohio!
JOYCE COMBS leaves her beautiful clothes and comical ways to someone in need of them.
HARRY DENAPOLI leaves on the road to success.
DAVID CASALI leaves an inch of rubber on the parking lot.
JOE EGAN leaves his witty remarks in the classroom to anybody who loves to "bug" teachers.
JOAN ECKHART leaves to become the first homemaker of the class of '59.
CAROL FORTIER leaves her giggles to any serious minded person.
CONNIE MORIN leaves, trying to finish her shorthand.
BENNY MAULUCCI leaves to let the girls find out about their boyfriends themselves.
HERB LUNDIN leaves in a hurry to get to work on time.
KENNY YORK leaves once again, but we were glad to have him back for our Senior Year.
PAT BLACK leaves psychology class still in favor of sororities and fraternities.
PETE TYSZKA leaves English class as confused as when he came.
PETER KRIVICKY leaves his hair on the barber shop floor.
DOTTIE KOWALSKY leaves, driving her "caddie" on sidewalks no less.
FRED KEATING leaves with his never to be forgotten school record.
GARY THOMSEN leaves to find trouble elsewhere.
PAT SARNACKI leaves POD and Mr. Nevers never knew she was there.
TOM SANTY leaves history to the historians.
BARBARA UREVITH leaves with the hopes that someday she'll grow at least one more inch.
THE SLAYTON GIRLS, Daisy and Ginny, leave with their giggles and otherwise quiet ways.
BARBARA SEATON leaves in a blue and white Ford, or was it a green and yellow Oldsmobile.
NANCY WILLOUGHBY leaves, chalking up every padiddle she sees!
JOE JANKOWSKI leaves with his tremendous sense of humor and terrific personality.
SUE FROSCIO leaves the pastries sitting on the shelf at Mayrons — they're just too fattening!
LILLIAN CARUSO leaves her giggle to any junior who needs one.
BOB BAMBACH can't leave — New Jersey has already claimed him!
BRIAN O'CONNOR leaves his winning way with a late pass to the one who'll take up where he left off.
PAT BYLENSKI leaves—but takes her ability with a needle and thread with her.
ALINE ROUSSEAU leaves, forgetting to put on her typewriter cover.
MARVA WEAVER-BEY leaves, but she takes that hot car with her.
JOYCE HALL bequeathes her dimples to any one who thinks they need them.
ANN CHROSTOWSKI leaves to go shopping for more of those goodlooking clothes she wears.
JOYCE HAYES leaves her place in the typing room with fond memories.
MARY LAFLEY leaves art to the arty.
CAROLINE GAMBLE leaves, knowing that she will never have to organize another refreshment committee in her life.
FRED JORDEN leaves on his way to the polls.

And we, Pat Minalga and Lynda Palmer, leave our best wishes to the Class of 1960 for a successful senior year at B.H.S.

JUNIOR PROM

CLASS PROPHECY

Extra! Extra!

The celebrated Bloomfield newspaper, "The Spy," is observing its 100th anniversary of service spearheaded by its able editor-in-chief Frederick Keating. To commemorate the occasion, he is extending an invitation to all his former classmates of Bloomfield High School's Class of '59. Some have risen to great fame.

Among the more celebrated personages are: Joe Attenello, the famous engineer, renowned for being the first to construct an element-resistant suspension bridge spanning the Atlantic Ocean; Art Charbonneau, the inventor of the first inter-planetary vehicle used in solar combat. He will possibly stage a demonstration.

Taking in all the festivities and latest news will be Miss Dorothy O'Connor, the subtle, but witty, women's answer to Walter Winchell.

Jane Corrette and Judy Manion will be there with the intention of taking notes for their famous book, Study of the Mail and Female.

That silent chemist who gives things that extra BOOM, Harry DeNapoli, will be present with the latest info on the B-Bomb.

Joyce Combs, who will be the attendant at the coronation of Mars' new Beauty Queen, will take time out from her dancing school to attend our social event.

That multi-millionaire, Brian O'Connor, who is never seen with one car for more than a week, will drive in his newly-acquired antique — a '59 Ford!

Gary Thomsen, who won the coveted Thomsen Racing Trophy in a kiddie cart, will be glad to come to the affair without it.

Lynda Palmer and Linda Boyes, who made headlines when they sued the U. S. Mail Service for not delivering mail fast enough, will also put in an appearance.

Richard Liebler, who designed a new rocket to be powered by the radiated heat of a light bulb, will blast off and pass overhead at the stroke of midnight.

Among the very wealthiest are: Barbara Seaton, the owner of a vast diamond deposit attained through a friend; Donna Nielsen, who opened the first dairy on the moon; and Carol Fortier and Bob Bambach, who made a fortune operating a correspondence high school.

Jerry Schreyer and Joe Jankowski, Earth's first appointed ambassadors to Mars, will enlighten the group on the Mars-Earth situation.

Also in this class are the famous fashion designers, Ann Campbell and Linda Grant, who recently invaded France with their latest creation, the "Schmack" a close, but unique, cousin of the Sack.

Frank Gay will be there with bells on, although he is currently appearing in that smash comedy, "Life is Gay, and So is Frank."

The inventors of that guaranteed trouble-free car that needs no gas, clutch, or transmission, Charlie Regini, and Morgan Utzig, will give the guests a peek at the latest in cars. Along with the car enthusiasts will be Dick Tonan, the man who bought out the Jaguar Corporation. Rumor has it that he will give one to all his former classmates.

Dorothy Keeney and Pat Sarnacki, who attained fame writing lovelorn columns, will both be there with free information.

The secretaries of the International Association of Retarded Robots, Dorothy Kowalsky, Hazel Norris, Chicky Mayette, and Joyce Hayes will compare notes with Mr. Keating on the progress made over the past 20 years.

In the past few years, many friends of the editor have gone to the Olympics, financed by the presidents of the First and Second International Banks — Thomas Olcott and Calvin Tracy. Among the best-known of these are Harold Douglas, the American Olympic Champion in the Decathilon and Julian Scruse, the coach of the internationally famous Global Trotters.

To provide some enjoyable entertainment, Carolyn Knox and Pat Minalga will direct their famous All-World Chorus.

For those interested in the literary people attending the gala gathering, there will be Steve Liebman, the famed professor and authority on U. S. History in the Universal Age; JoAnn Moriarty and Betsy Lee, who have supplied invaluable information to the medical profession on the protection and care of the appendix.

The co-owners of the nationwide chain of grocery stores, Joe Egan and Herb Lundin will send their greetings and thirty cartons of fresh fruits. In one of the cartons, it's suspected that the famous clown partner of Doody Rowdy, Gerry Greenberg, will be hiding. Sue Tavener and Sue Schwartz will put in an appearance, but must hurry back to their co-operative firm of Car-Hops, Incorporated.

Tom Santy, who was the first to develop the "Automatic Checkboy" for his grocery chain, will also be present.

Elaine Ellsworth, Joan Eckhart, and Carolyn Hattie will be there — stuck in the kitchen plotting and giggles as usual.

Who knows, Lee Bergamini might just gallop in on his famous horse, Quick-Silver!

Sure to be there are Barbara Urevith, Aline Rousseau, Mary-Lou Lafley, Ken York, and Gail Cleaves, because each is sure that he is going to win the fabulous door prize of a five-year cruise through the universe.

Since rockets are the latest craze, Charlie Pease, Pete Tyzska, and Peter Krivicky, the men who broke the universe endurance record by traveling around the world in Explorer LXV, will be there with the new news on lunar probes.

Virginia and Daisy Slayton have just recently received world attention by taking the place of the Meadow sisters in T.V. panel shows.

The fastest typist on earth (or outer space), Marva Weaver-bey, will fly from New York from the "Speedway" in order to appear.

Evelyn Butvilas and Lorraine Hyer might be there if they can get their fingers unstuck from their Peter and Sands Co. typewriters.

Ben Maulucci, Carter Casida, David Casali, Fran DeLucco, and Lillian Caruso have found time from the U.N. Committee, based between Mars and Earth, to pay a flying visit.

Becky Porter will be there for the event from Paris, where she is the head of the world's most famous modeling.

Ann Chrostowski, Pat Black, and Pat Bylenski will attend if they can penetrate the sound barriers flying from Saturn, where they live, to Earth.

Because they live on Pluto, Joyce Hall and Connie Morin will be among the missing. The reason is that on Pluto only the outmoded automobile is used and they can't seem to borrow a space ship anywhere. Poor girls!

Providing the refreshments will be class of '59 members Sue Froscio and Caroline Gamble who manage the famed International Bakery in New York City. They hope to get together with the rest of the girls in the kitchen, as they can never hope to get out of the kitchen either!

Judy Kearns, that famous author of "How to Keep More Than One Man On the String," will probably be there handing out free copies, as she just can't seem to sell any.

Fred Jorden, the latest mayor of Mars, may show up to give out some secrets of his success.

Nancy Kulpa and Nancy Willoughby, who lead the Inter-Space Cheering Squad, will make their entrance by doing cartwheels across the banquet hall. It's reported that they will talk with the members from the Olympics who are interested in having them cheer for this year's games.

When all are assembled for the unparalleled occasion, Mr. Keating will express his warmest and most sincere welcome, and thank all for their tribute to him and "The Spy." Then everyone will take a good old-fashioned universe-cruise so that they can reminisce and relate their many and varied success stories.

See you there and Bon Voyage!

THE TATTLER

Passing the door of Room 208 almost any afternoon, one might get the impression that a small tornado, or even a cyclone was passing through. On investigation, however, it's found that this is not the case.

Papers and pictures are scattered about and things seem to be in a great state of confusion, but it's only the Tattler staff rushing to meet a deadline.

A lot goes into putting together a yearbook. Even though it doesn't look like it, the confusion has a purpose and most of the time it's highly organized.

With Carolyn Knox as editor, things began to take shape. Articles began to come in, and the fun of editing pictures and doing paste-ups soon started.

Nancy Kulpa, the Tattler's business editor was kept busy with her staff and seeing that the books were kept in order.

The biggest vote of appreciation must go to Miss Hubbard, the Tattler's advisor, for all the help and advice she has given.

We're sure that, with all the help the staff has had, and all the work that has been put into the Tattler, this can't help but be the very best edition yet.

SALMON SHEET

"News? This is more like history! You're three days late with it!"

This is a typical remark coming from room 112 meaning that press time is near for the Salmon Sheet. The paper's advisor, Mrs. Marjorie Smith, and its editor, Dolly O'Connor, have had their problems in meeting deadlines.

Printed in tabloid form by the West Hartford News, the Salmon Sheet carries regular features such as Fashions, "Talk of the Town," Girl and Boy of the Month, and an innovation this year, "From the Bench," a sports column.

The Salmon Sheet tries to cover as many school activities as possible, with equal representation for all classes. The school paper is a record of current school activities and events, and is successful only through the efforts of the entire staff.

Rollie strikes out!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Bloomfield High School Student Council constitutes the student government in our school. Its purpose is to promote the best interests of the school, and give students a part in the administration. Practicality in application is the essence of its doctrine. School laws originating in the Council have always been constituted for the welfare of the whole school.

An impressive installation ceremony was an appropriate prelude to this year's Council work. Among some of its undertakings were a new school pledge, spectator buses to all basketball games, a successful town-wide Student Day, action on the school's ring, seal and motto, a new school handbook with an appropriate code of ethics, and the establishment of an Inter-Club Council.

Since so much confusion resulted from the efforts of scheduling extra-curricular activities, the Student Council formed an Inter-Club Council which would unite all clubs and activities under one head to discuss and formulate school activities.

Fred Keating, the Council's president, was kept busy not only with Bloomfield's work, but also with the activities of the Connecticut Federation of Student Councils. Fred had the honor of serving as state president during the 1958-1959 school year.

Every Student Council member is proud to be a part of one of the most active and beneficial organizations at Bloomfield High School.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This year the Bloomfield Chapter of the National Honor Society inducted six new members into its organization, who were, as always, selected on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. These necessary qualifications are designed to keep the Society a restricted and active organization.

The Bloomfield Chapter is now in its twentieth year of existence and is in its ninth year of affiliation with the National Honor Society. The four-fold purpose of the Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to strengthen the character of the students, to promote leadership, and to stimulate a desire to render service.

For their project, this year the members of the Honor Society, with the help of Miss Zabriskie, the advisor, sponsored a Job Clinic in May where students of B.H.S. met with town officials concerning jobs available in Bloomfield.

Record 5-4-3

Under the experienced coaching background of Coach Leo Yacionello, the Bloomfield High School soccer team finished in second place in the Central Valley League. Fine sportsmanship and good ball playing was evidenced in the team despite a slow start. As the season progressed, things became brighter, and the team won four of their last seven games, tying two.

High scorer for the team was Francis Juda. Strong support was given by Richard Goodwin, Edward Walsh, and Carl Walbam. The team scored 10 times, as against 8 for their opponents, with an average of .850 goals per game. It posted a .555 game average this year.

St. Thomas Nips Bloomfield In Thril

Madden Sparks Victors To 51-48 Overtime Win

By FRANK CLINE
Courant Sports Writer

BLOOMFIELD — Undefeated St. Thomas Seminary High, caught down behind in the final minute of regulation play, rebounded superbly in the three minute extra session, to defeat Bloomfield High, 51-48, in overtime Tuesday afternoon. It was the Seminarians' second win of the season over the Warhawks and clinched the Bloomfield town championship.

Jim Madden, St. Thomas' leading scorer a year ago who was held to two baskets in regulation play, pumped home three goals in the extra session to spark the Seminarians to their 10th victory of the season. The defeat, a heart breaking one for the Warhawks who trailed for the better part of three periods until knotting the score 46-46 on Julie Scruse's one hander from the corner with 45 seconds left in the fourth period, was the sixth in 13 games for Bloomfield High.

Keating Brilliant In Defeat

Scruse's clutch hoop climaxed a thrilling fourth quarter rally by the Warhawks who trailed by seven points going into the last period. Fred Keating, who played brilliantly in a losing effort for the Warhawks, Greg Callahan and Scruse fronted Bloomfield's fourth quarter comeback.

East Hampton Beaten, Loses Valley C Lead

The situation today in the Valley C Conference race is about as clear as the Republican foreign policy at a meeting of staunch Democrats!

Some 72 hours ago, East Hampton, rolling along with a 4-0 mark and 7-0 overall, pretty much owned things within the circuit, with Bloomfield a bit off the pace. But the fact of the matter was that the Bellringers held first place, [illegible] a corner on the plaudits with a 39 point win over defending champion Windsor Locks.

Today, East Hampton hasn't got enough power to ring a bell! The lads from across the river moved into Suffield last night, and when the ambush was complete, Coach Bill Atkinson's club had posted a convincing 60-39 victory, dropping the Bellringers into second place in the conference. Bloomfield, by virtue of a 55-45 win over Bacon Academy is the new pacesetter.

Colchester—Bloomfield came very close to not taking advantage of the East Hampton loss, needing a rally in the final two minutes [illegible] Coach Wally Case's [illegible] led 24-21 at [illegible] their lead to 2[illegible] before the Wa[illegible] the come-from-[illegible] that paid off. Bloomfield Wins, Ties for Valley C Lead

It's all tied up again in the Central Valley C Basketball League, Bloomfield and East Hampton sharing the top rung with 8-1 records. Bloomfield could take a temporary lead Friday when it meets Berlin while East Hampton plays Cromwell in a non-league tilt.

Bloomfield moved into a tie with East Hampton yesterday with a come-from-behind 51-48 victory over last year's champion, Windsor Locks while East Hampton was idle.

In one other game, Bacon Academy was hard pressed before it picked up a 60-58 win over Berlin. In a non-league affair, Portland was trounced by Ellsworth, 72-45.

Bloomfield — High scoring Fred Keating again was the difference for Bloomfield as he pumped in 25 points to lead Bloomfield to its eighth win in 12 games. The losers took a 12-11 lead at the end of the first period in the see-saw struggle only to see the Warhawks go up 28-23 at the half. The Raiders forced back into the lead going into the final period with a 36-32 advantage as the winners hit but once from the floor in the third quarter.

Suffield Tops Bloomfield in Valley C Loop

Bloomfield's hope for the Central Valley C League basketball championship were dim today as it awaited the final game of the season with Windsor Locks on Friday.

The Warhawks, without their ace Fred Keating, suffered a 56-51 defeat at the hands of Suffield in drop one full game back of league leading East Hampton which last night [illegible] off.

Another East Hampton win or a Bloomfield defeat gives East Hampton the title. Should East Hampton lose in its final with Portland Friday, and Bloomfield win, they would tie for the championship.

In another league game last night, Berlin whipped Windsor Locks, 60-50. In a couple of non-league battles, Bacon crushed Ellsworth, 69-54 and Simsbury downed Canton, 62-51.

Suffield — It was a big victory for Suffield, one that enabled the Wildcats to qualify for the coming state tournament. Tom Gauley was the big gun for Suffield which came from behind in the final period. Bloomfield, after trailing at the half, 26-18, pushed forward to a 36-32 lead going into the last period. But Gauley, who scored 23 points for the winners, got hot and dropped in 12 in the final quarter as Suffield outscored the Warhawks, 24-15 over the last eight minutes. Suffield is now 13-8 for the season while Bloomfield is 13-7.

East Hampton Defeats Bloomfield

There's nothing quite [illegible] consistent as the [illegible] of the Valley C Conference [illegible] race.

A week ago or so, East Hampton looked like real title timber, only to be knocked off [illegible] but soundly by Suffield, with Bloomfield taking over the lead and apparently the team to beat at the midway mark in the battle for the title. The [illegible] vital crucial game was set [illegible] night at East Hampton with Coach John Patsonis' Warhawks [illegible] to put the first place 5-3 mark on the line against the Bellringers, half-game off th epace with a 5-1 record.

What happened? You guessed it if you said East Hampton hung it on the Warhawks to again take over first place in the conference. Final score: East Hampton 53, Bloomfield 49.

In other action involving league teams, Windsor Locks [illegible] Bacon Academy, 53-[illegible] Portland trampled Cross[illegible], 70-38. In a non-conference scrap, Suffield dumped Ellsworth, 50-44, in another outside game, and defeated Canton, 64-[illegible] non-conference scrap.

BLOOMFIELD (Special) — Overcoming a third period scoring famine which found them connecting for only one field goal and [illegible] behind 36-32, Bloomfield High's basketball team rallied in the final period to defeat Windsor Locks, 53-48, Tuesday afternoon.

The win enabled Bloomfield to tie idle East Hampton for first place in the Central Valley C League race. Both have identical 9-1 league records.

See-Saw Struggle

It was a see-saw struggle most [illegible] way. Windsor Locks led [illegible] at the end of the first period but Bloomfield rallied to go [illegible] ahead 28-22 at halftime. Windsor Locks again went in front 36-32 at the end of three periods but Fred Keating caught fire in the final period and Bloomfield won going away.

Keating paced all scorers with 3 points with Tom Hamilton caging 10 also for the victors. Bob Graber topped Windsor Locks with 21 points.

It was the eighth win in 12 games overall for Bloomfield. Windsor Locks has now split even in ten games.

Leaders Meet Friday in Valley C Loop

Bloomfield, which has been a challenger to the Central Valley "C" Basketball League title for the past several years but hasn't been able to go all the way, will get a chance to get a firm grip on the title Friday when it plays this year's challenger, East Hampton.

Last night both teams warmed up for the "BIG" game Friday with league victories. Bloomfield kept its league record clean by nipping Suffield 72-69. Suffield upset a previously unbeaten East Hampton last week by 20 points. East Hampton on the other hand trounced Canton, 71-40.

Thus Bloomfield goes into the Friday game with a 5-0 record in league play, while East Hampton comes in with a 4-1 league mark.

In the only other league game, Berlin downed Portland 68-56. In a non-league contest, Windsor Locks beat East Windsor, 45-39.

Bloomfield, East Hampton Win Valley C Contests

There were no major changes in the Central Valley C Basketball League standings yesterday, strange as it may seem, as Bloomfield and East Hampton continued their battle for top honors.

Bloomfield, which holds [illegible] half game lead in the league, picked up its ninth loop win in 11 starts with an easy 62-32 win over Canton. East Hampton stayed with Bloomfield by smoring a 52-44 win over Berlin for its eighth league victory in 10 games.

In another league game, Suffield rallied to trip Bacon, 58-57 and Cromwell defeated Portland, 48-38 in a non-league contest.

Collinsville — It was expected, but now it's official. Bloomfield will play in State C tournament this season. The Warhawks assured themselves of a berth in the coming tourney with its win over Canton last night, the 14th of the season against five defeats. The winners trailed after the first period, 17-15, but rallied to take a 26-22 lead at the half. Bloomfield Pins First Defeat On Ellsworth, 48-40

BLOOMFIELD (Special) — The new year was not nearly as fruitful as the old one to Ellsworth High's previously undefeated basketball team. The South Windsor quintet lost for the first time this winter being whipped 48-40 by Bloomfield here Tuesday afternoon.

The loss for Ellsworth, their first since the start of the new year following five straight December triumphs, gave Bloomfield sweet revenge for one of the Warhawks two defeats this winter. Bloomfield has now won five of seven starts.

Warhawks Lead All Way

Bloomfield raced into a 17-4 first period edge and stayed in front the rest of the way. The Warhawks held quarter margins of 25-19 and 36-20.

Fred Keating paced Bloomfield with 25 points with Fran Juda chipping in with 13 also for the victors. Pete Roberts with 15 and Pete Rosen with 13 topped Ellsworth.

Bloomfield also won the jayvee game 45-25.

VARSITY BASKETBALL MANAGERS

BASKETBALL

It was a fine season for the Warhawks this year. They found second berth in the Central Valley C League comfortable, meriting this by their record of 14 wins and 7 losses. Leading Bloomfield in practically all the games was versatile Fred Keating. Fred, piling up 544 points this year, was within safe distance of Julian Scruse and Fran Juda. Despite lack of height, the team had an exciting season, making up for the lack with good ball handling and well-rounded shooting abilities.

Total points for the year were well over the 1,000 mark, with Fred Keating contributing almost fifty per cent. However, he wasn't the only star on the court by any means. Julian Scruse displayed excellent ball handling, and Fran Juda and Tom Hamilton piled up more than their share of rebounds.

In the tournament the team carried Bloomfield High's colors to the semi-finals to be beaten by powerful Litchfield.

BASEBALL

The 1958 baseball team, under the direction of Coach Francis Nevers, was comprised of one senior, three juniors, and five sophomores. The team finished the season with a sparkling 5-1 win over Ellsworth. Scoring honors went to Fran Juda and Lee Bergamini with two RBI's apiece. The second game was dropped to St. Thomas Seminary with a score of 8-7.

The biggest and most memorable game of the season was a 12-inning 3-3 tie with Canton. Lee Bergamini opened up the twelfth inning with a single, and then was pushed to second by a sacrifice fly by Greg Callàhan. Art Charbonneau then singled to bring Bergi home with what proved to be the team's winning run. Fran Juda received pitching honors, going twelve innings and allowing only five hits.

The team ended the season with an average of 4.5 runs per game.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Bloomfield High Girls' Basketball squad started its 1958-59 season with two wins — one against Southington, and the other against Granby. Team members were Nancy Bramon, Jane Nordstrom, Barbara Urevith, Maureen Nolan, Carolyn Rogean, and Evelyn Butvilas, playing forward positions; Donna Nielsen, Carol Engle, Bev Shea, Judy Kearns, Marilyn VanWie, and Dolly O'Connor as guards. Dolly O'Connor and Evelyn Butvilas were elected co-captains.

Southington met defeat, 47-35, in the girls' first game. The Bloomfield girls sparkled especially in foul shots, with Evelyn Butvilas making 5-5 and the team as a whole, making 13-20. Carolyn Rogean was high scorer with 12 points. When Granby visited Bloomfield, they returned home defeated 30-22. Jane Nordstrom was high scorer with a total of 17 points.

Nearing the end of their season, the girl's varsity squad record was 4-5. The varsity lost to Farmington, 42-35, with Evelyn Butvilas stacking up 15 of Bloomfield's 35 points. In the next game with Granby, she again was high scorer, making 18 of the team's 33 points. Bloomfield lost to Granby, 46-33.

Bloomfield lost to East Windsor, their old rival, 39-27, but the girls were full of fight and team spirit. Nancy Bramon was high scorer with 8 points.

In their last game the girls beat Simsbury in an overtime thriller by 4 points. Bea Bruist, who normally plays on Jr. Varsity, but sometimes plays Varsity, came through as high scorer with 17 points.

The girls' varsity record at the end of the season was 5-5, and throughout the whole season they showed excellent sportsmanship, teamwork and spirit.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Kneeling, left to right: N. Stenstrom, M. Newkirk, L. Adoff, M. Attenello, A. Merritt, B. Rock, G. Mooney.
Standing, left to right: D. Keeney and C. Rubin — managers, J. Nordstrom, B. Bruist, J. Clifford, B. Barnard, M. Hills, M. Grossi, and Mrs. Morse — coach.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM

Seated, left to right: S. Gardner, E. Butvilas, J. Crossen, A. Harger, D. Grossi, P. Merritt, D. Nielsen, and E. Sheldon.

SOFTBALL

The Bloomfield High Girls' Softball Team ended its 1958 season with a team record of 4-4. Team members consisted of Diane Grossi, Pat Merritt, Audrey Harger, Donna Nielsen, Evelyn Butvilas, Nancy Bramon, Beverly Ormsby, Bea Wood, Lee Russell, Esther Sheldon, and Judy Crossen.

The season started out with a jinx, for the girls lost their first three games — Canton, 17-13; Granby, 12-9; and Granby again, 7-4. They then won a thrilling game against East Windsor, 8-14, but later lost to Canton, 20-17.

Toward the end of the season, with luck prevailing, the girls won their three remaining games: Simsbury, 16-10; East Windsor, 15-14; and Windsor, 12-11.

Diana Grossi received the outstanding player award; Audrey Harger received the Babe Ruth award; the Carpenter award went to Pat Merritt.
